Headline:
Sunny spells with showers across the weekend.

Today:
A cloudy start with outbreaks of patchy light rain and drizzle, especially on the hills. The cloud will thin and break to give some bright or warm sunny spells in the afternoon, with perhaps the odd light shower. Light winds. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
A largely dry and cloudy night, with low cloud and hill fog. Some patchy light rain and drizzle at times, mainly on the hills. Another mild night, with light winds. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Sunday:
After a cloudy start, brightening up for many, with some warm sunny spells developing by the afternoon. Rain, locally heavy, and strong winds will arrive from the west later. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Early rain clearing to leave sunshine and scattered showers on Monday. Further showers on Tuesday, heavy and possibly thundery. Drier and brighter Wednesday. Feeling much cooler and fresher. Windy too.
